Counsel for Plaintiff and Proposed Class

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON

CHARLIE GABERTAN, individually and on behalf of all others similarly situated,

Plaintiff,

vs.

WALMART INC., a Delaware Corporation,

Defendant.

Case No.

CLASS ACTION

COMPLAINT FOR VIOLATIONS OF
THE TELEPHONE CONSUMER
PROTECTION ACT, 47 U.S.C. §§ 227,
ET SEQ. (TCPA)

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

1 CLASS ACTION COMPLAINT

2 1. Plaintiff, Charlie Gabertan, brings this action against Defendant, Walmart Inc., to 3 secure redress for violations of the Telephone Consumer Protection Act (“TCPA”), 47 U.S.C. §
4 227.

5 NATURE OF THE ACTION

6 2. This is a putative class action pursuant to the Telephone Consumer Protection Act,
7 47 U.S.C. §§ 227, et seq. (the “TCPA”).

8 3. Defendant is an American multinational retail corporation that operates a chain of 9 hypermarkets, discount department stores, and grocery stores. To promote its services, Defendant
10 engages in aggressive unsolicited marketing, harming thousands of consumers in the process.

11 4. Through this action, Plaintiff seeks injunctive relief to halt Defendant’s illegal 12 conduct, which has resulted in the invasion of privacy, harassment, aggravation, and disruption of 13 the daily life of thousands of individuals. Plaintiff also seeks statutory damages on behalf of 14 himself and members of the Class, and any other available legal or equitable remedies.

15 JURISDICTION AND VENUE

16 5. This Court has federal question subject matter jurisdiction over this action pursuant 17 to 28 U.S.C. § 1331, as the action arises under the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C.
18 §§ 227, et seq. (“TCPA”).

19 6. The Court has personal jurisdiction over Defendant and venue is proper in this
20 District because Defendant directs, markets, and provides its business activities to this District,
21 and because Defendant’s unauthorized marketing scheme was directed by Defendant to consumers
22 in this District, including Plaintiff.

23 PARTIES

24 7. Plaintiff is a natural person who, at all times relevant to this action, was a resident
25 of Pierce County, Washington.

1 8. Defendant is a Delaware corporation whose principal office is located at 708 SW
2 8th Street, Bentonville, Arkansas, 72716. Defendant directs, markets, and provides its business
3 activities throughout the United States, including throughout the state of Washington.

4 9. Unless otherwise indicated, the use of Defendant's name in this Complaint includes
5 all agents, employees, officers, members, directors, heirs, successors, assigns, principals, trustees,
6 sureties, subrogees, representatives, vendors, and insurers of Defendant.

7 THE TCPA

8 10. The TCPA prohibits: (1) any person from calling a cellular telephone number; (2)
9 using an automatic telephone dialing system; (3) without the recipient's prior express consent. 47
10 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A).

11 11. The TCPA defines an "automatic telephone dialing system" ("ATDS") as 12 "equipment that has the capacity - (A) to store or produce telephone numbers to be called, using a 13 random or sequential number generator; and (B) to dial such numbers." 47 U.S.C. § 227(a)(1).

14 12. In an action under the TCPA, a plaintiff must only show that the defendant "called 15 a number assigned to a cellular telephone service using an automatic dialing system or prerecorded
16 voice." Breslow v. Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., 857 F. Supp. 2d 1316, 1319 (S.D. Fla. 2012), aff'd, 17 755 F.3d 1265 (11th Cir. 2014).

18 13. The Federal Communications Commission ("FCC") is empowered to issue rules
19 and regulations implementing the TCPA. According to the FCC's findings, calls in violation of 20 the TCPA are prohibited because, as Congress found, automated or prerecorded telephone calls
21 are a greater nuisance and invasion of privacy than live solicitation calls, and such calls can be 22 costly and inconvenient. The FCC also recognized that wireless customers are charged for 23 incoming calls whether they pay in advance or after the minutes are used. Rules and Regulations
24 Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, CG Docket No. 02-278, Report
25 and Order, 18 FCC Rcd 14014 (2003).

26 14. In 2012, the FCC issued an order tightening the restrictions for automated
27 telemarketing calls, requiring "prior express written consent" for such calls to wireless numbers.

1 See In the Matter of Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 27
2 F.C.C.R. 1830, 1838 ¶ 20 (Feb. 15, 2012) (emphasis supplied).

3 15. To obtain express written consent for telemarketing calls, a defendant must 4 establish that it secured the plaintiff's signature in a form that gives the plaintiff a "clear and 5 conspicuous disclosure' of the consequences of providing the requested consent....and having 6 received this information, agrees unambiguously to receive such calls at a telephone number the 7 [plaintiff] designates." In re Rules & Regulations Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 8 1991, 27 F.C.C.R. 1830, 1837 ¶ 18, 1838 ¶ 20, 1844 ¶ 33, 1857 ¶ 66, 1858 ¶ 71 (F.C.C. Feb. 15, 9 2012).

10 16. The TCPA regulations promulgated by the FCC define "telemarketing" as "the 11 initiation of a telephone call or message for the purpose of encouraging the purchase or rental of,
12 or investment in, property, goods, or services." 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(12). In determining 13 whether a communication constitutes telemarketing, a court must evaluate the ultimate purpose of 14 the communication. See Golan v. Veritas Entm't, LLC, 788 F.3d 814, 820 (8th Cir. 2015).

15 17. "Neither the TCPA nor its implementing regulations 'require an explicit mention 16 of a good, product, or service' where the implication of an improper purpose is 'clear from the 17 context.'" Id. (citing Chesbro v. Best Buy Stores, L.P., 705 F.3d 913, 918 (9th Cir. 2012)).

18 18. "'Telemarketing' occurs when the context of a call indicates that it was initiated
19 and transmitted to a person for the purpose of promoting property, goods, or services." Golan, 20 788 F.3d at 820 (citing 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(a)(2)(iii); 47 C.F.R. § 64.1200(f)(12); In re Rules and 21 Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 18 F.C.C. Rcd at 22 14098 ¶ 141, 2003 WL 21517853, at *49).

23 19. The FCC has explained that calls motivated in part by the intent to sell property,
24 goods, or services are considered telemarketing under the TCPA. See In re Rules and Regulations
25 Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014, ¶¶ 139-142
26 (2003). This is true whether call recipients are encouraged to purchase, rent, or invest in property, 27 goods, or services during the call or in the future. Id.

1 20. In other words, offers “that are part of an overall marketing campaign to sell
2 property, goods, or services constitute” telemarketing under the TCPA. See In re Rules and
3 Regulations Implementing the Telephone Consumer Protection Act of 1991, 18 FCC Rcd. 14014,
4 ¶ 136 (2003).

5 21. If a call is not deemed telemarketing, a defendant must nevertheless demonstrate 6 that it obtained the plaintiff’s prior express consent. See In the Matter of Rules and Regulations
7 Implementing the Tel. Consumer Prot. Act of 1991, 30 FCC Rcd. 7961, 7991-92 (2015) (requiring 8 express consent “for non-telemarketing and non-advertising calls”).

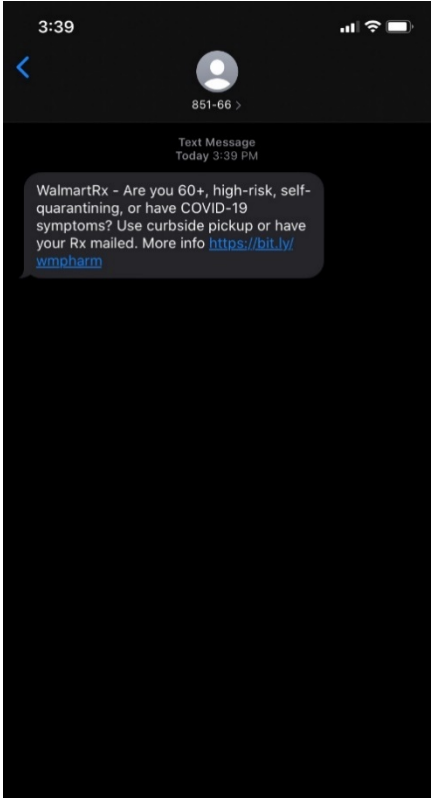

9 22. Further, the FCC has issued rulings and clarified that consumers are entitled to the 10 same consent-based protections for text messages as they are for calls to wireless numbers. See
11 Satterfield v. Simon & Schuster, Inc., 569 F.3d 946, 952 (9th Cir. 2009) (The FCC has determined 12 that a text message falls within the meaning of “to make any call” in 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)); 13 Toney v. Quality Res., Inc., 2014 WL 6757978, at *3 (N.D. Ill. Dec. 1, 2014) (Defendant bears the 14 burden of showing that it obtained Plaintiff’s prior express consent before sending him the text 15 message). (emphasis added).

16 23. As recently held by the United States Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit:
17 “Unsolicited telemarketing phone calls or text messages, by their nature, invade the privacy and 18 disturb the solitude of their recipients. A plaintiff alleging a violation under the TCPA ‘need not 19 allege any additional harm beyond the one Congress has identified.” Van Patten v. Vertical 20 Fitness Grp., No. 14-55980, 2017 U.S. App. LEXIS 1591, at *12 (9th Cir. May 4, 2016) (quoting 21 Spokeo, Inc. v. Robins, 136 S. Ct. 1540, 1549 (2016) (emphasis original)).

22 FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

23 24. Beginning on or about April 7, 2020, Defendant sent the following telemarketing
24 text messages to Plaintiff’s cellular telephone number ending in 7808 (the “7808 Number”):
25
26
27

22
23
24
25
26
27
28

25. Defendant’s text message was transmitted to Plaintiff’s cellular telephone, and within the time frame relevant to this action.

26. Defendant’s text message constitutes telemarketing because it encouraged the future purchase or investment in property, goods, or services, i.e., selling Plaintiff various products sold by Defendant.

27. The text message promotes Defendant’s pharmacy business and delivery services.

28. Plaintiff received the subject texts within this judicial district and, therefore, Defendant’s violation of the TCPA occurred within this district. Upon information and belief, Defendant caused other text messages to be sent to individuals residing within this judicial district.

29. At no point in time did Plaintiff provide Defendant with his express written consent to be contacted using an ATDS.

30. Plaintiff is the subscriber and sole user of the 7808 Number and is financially responsible for phone service to the 7808 Number.

1 31. The impersonal and generic nature of Defendant’s text message demonstrates that
2 Defendant utilized an ATDS in transmitting the messages. See Jenkins v. LL Atlanta, LLC, No.
3 1:14-cv-2791-WSD, 2016 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 30051, at *11 (N.D. Ga. Mar. 9, 2016) (“These 4 assertions, combined with the generic, impersonal nature of the text message advertisements and
5 the use of a short code, support an inference that the text messages were sent using an ATDS.”)
6 (citing Legg v. Voice Media Grp., Inc., 20 F. Supp. 3d 1370, 1354 (S.D. Fla. 2014) (plaintiff alleged 7 facts sufficient to infer text messages were sent using ATDS; use of a short code and volume of 8 mass messaging alleged would be impractical without use of an ATDS); Kramer v. Autobytel, Inc., 9 759 F. Supp. 2d 1165, 1171 (N.D. Cal. 2010) (finding it "plausible" that defendants used an ATDS 10 where messages were advertisements written in an impersonal manner and sent from short code);
11 Hickey v. Voxernet LLC, 887 F. Supp. 2d 1125, 1130; Robbins v. Coca-Cola Co., No. 13-CV-132-
12 IEG NLS, 2013 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 72725, 2013 WL 2252646, at *3 (S.D. Cal. May 22, 2013)
13 (observing that mass messaging would be impracticable without use of an ATDS)).

14 32. The text messages originated from telephone number 851-66, a number which upon 15 information and belief is owned and operated by Defendant.

16 33. The number used by Defendant (851-66) is known as a “short code,” a standard 5-
17 digit code that enables Defendant to send SMS text messages en masse, while deceiving recipients 18 into believing that the message was personalized and sent from a telephone number operated by 19 an individual.

20 34. Short codes work as follows: Private companies known as SMS gateway providers
21 have contractual arrangements with mobile carriers to transmit two-way SMS traffic. These SMS
22 gateway providers send and receive SMS traffic to and from the mobile phone networks' SMS
23 centers, which are responsible for relaying those messages to the intended mobile phone. This 24 allows for the transmission of a large number of SMS messages to and from a short code.

25 35. Specifically, upon information and belief, Defendant utilized a combination of 26 hardware and software systems to send the text messages at issue in this case. The systems utilized
27
28

1 by Defendant have the capacity to store telephone numbers using a random or sequential number
2 generator, and to dial such numbers from a list without human intervention.

3 36. To send the text messages, Defendant used a messaging platform (the “Platform”)
4 that permitted Defendant to transmit thousands of automated text messages without any human 5 involvement.

6 37. The Platform has the capacity to store telephone numbers, which capacity was in 7 fact utilized by Defendant.

8 38. The Platform has the capacity to generate sequential numbers, which capacity was 9 in fact utilized by Defendant.

10 39. The Platform has the capacity to dial numbers in sequential order, which capacity
11 was in fact utilized by Defendant.

12 40. The Platform has the capacity to dial numbers from a list of numbers, which 13 capacity was in fact utilized by Defendant.

14 41. The Platform has the capacity to dial numbers without human intervention, which
15 capacity was in fact utilized by Defendant.

16 42. The Platform has the capacity to schedule the time and date for future transmission
17 of text messages, which occurs without any human involvement.

18 43. To transmit the messages at issue, the Platform automatically executed the 19 following steps:

- 20 a) The Platform retrieved each telephone number from a list of numbers in the 21 sequential order the numbers were listed;
- 22 b) The Platform then generated each number in the sequential order listed and 23 combined each number with the content of Defendant’s message to create 24 “packets” consisting of one telephone number and the message content;
- 25 c) Each packet was then transmitted in the sequential order listed to an SMS
26 aggregator, which acts an intermediary between the Platform, mobile carriers
27 (e.g. AT&T), and consumers.

1 d) Upon receipt of each packet, the SMS aggregator transmitted each packet –
 2 automatically and with no human intervention – to the respective mobile 3 carrier for the telephone number, again in the sequential order listed by 4 Defendant. Each mobile carrier then sent the message to its customer’s mobile
 5 telephone.

6 44. The above execution these instructions occurred seamlessly, with no human 7 intervention, and almost instantaneously. Indeed, the Platform is capable of transmitting thousands 8 of text messages following the above steps in minutes, if not less.

9 45. Further, the Platform “throttles” the transmission of the text messages depending 10 on feedback it receives from the mobile carrier networks. In other words, the platform controls
 11 how quickly messages are transmitted depending on network congestion. The platform performs 12 this throttling function automatically and does not allow a human to control the function.

13 46. The following graphic summarizes the above steps and demonstrates that the 14 dialing of the text messages at issue was done by the Platform automatically and without any 15 human intervention:

21 47. Defendant’s unsolicited text message caused Plaintiff actual harm, including 22 invasion of his privacy, aggravation, annoyance, intrusion on seclusion, trespass, and conversion.
 23 Defendant’s text messages also inconvenienced Plaintiff and caused disruption to his daily life.

24 48. Defendant’s unsolicited text message caused Plaintiff actual harm. Specifically,
 25 Plaintiff estimates that he spent approximately fifteen minutes investigating the unwanted text
 26 message including how they obtained his number and who the Defendant was.

1 49. Furthermore, Defendant's text message took up memory on Plaintiff's cellular
2 phone. The cumulative effect of unsolicited text messages like Defendant's poses a real risk of 3 ultimately rendering the phone unusable for text messaging purposes as a result of the phone's
4 memory being taken up. See <https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0350-text-message-spam#text>
5 (finding that text message solicitations like the ones sent by Defendant present a "triple threat" of 6 identity theft, unwanted cell phone charges, and slower cell phone performance).

7 50. Defendant's text messages also can slow cell phone performance by taking up space
8 on the recipient phone's memory. See https://www.consumer.ftc.gov/articles/0350-text-message-
9 spam#text (finding that spam text messages can slow cell phone performance by taking up phone 10 memory space).

11 CLASS ALLEGATIONS

12 PROPOSED CLASS

13 51. Plaintiff brings this case as a class action pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 23, on behalf 14 of himself and all others similarly situated.

15 52. Plaintiff brings this case on behalf of the Class defined as follows:

16 All persons in the United States who, within four years prior 17 to the filing of this action, (1) were sent a text message by or 18 on behalf of Defendant, (2) using an automatic telephone
19 dialing system, (3) for the purpose of soliciting Defendant's 20 goods and services, (4) without prior express consent of the 21 recipient, or with the same manner of purported consent
22 Defendant claims to have obtained from Plaintiff, if any.

23 53. Defendant and its employees or agents are excluded from the Class. Plaintiff does 24 not know the number of members in the Class but believes the Class members number in the 25 several thousands, if not more.

26 NUMEROSITY

27 54. Upon information and belief, Defendant has placed automated calls to cellular 28 telephone numbers belonging to thousands of consumers throughout the United States without their prior express consent. The members of the Class, therefore, are believed to be so numerous that joinder of all members is impracticable.

1 55. The exact number and identities of the members of the Class are unknown at this
2 time and can only be ascertained through discovery. Identification of the Class members is a
3 matter capable of ministerial determination from Defendant's call records.

4 COMMON QUESTIONS OF LAW AND FACT

5 56. There are numerous questions of law and fact common to members of the Class
6 which predominate over any questions affecting only individual members of the Class. Among 7 the questions of law and fact common to the members of the Class are:

- 8 a) Whether Defendant made non-emergency calls to Plaintiff's and Class
9 members' cellular telephones using an ATDS;
- 10 b) Whether Defendant can meet its burden of showing that it obtained prior 11 express written consent to make such calls;
- 12 c) Whether Defendant's conduct was knowing and willful;
- 13 d) Whether Defendant is liable for damages, and the amount of such damages; and 14 e) Whether Defendant should be enjoined from such conduct in the future.

15 57. The common questions in this case are capable of having common answers. If 16 Plaintiff's claim that Defendant routinely transmits text messages to telephone numbers assigned
17 to cellular telephone services is accurate, Plaintiff and the Class members will have identical
18 claims capable of being efficiently adjudicated and administered in this case.

19 TYPICALITY

20 58. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of the Class members, as they are all 21 based on the same factual and legal theories.

22 PROTECTING THE INTERESTS OF THE CLASS MEMBERS

23 59. Plaintiff is a representative who will fully and adequately assert and protect the 24 interests of the Class, and has retained competent counsel. Accordingly, Plaintiff is an adequate
25 representative and will fairly and adequately protect the interests of the Class.

26 ///

27 ///

1 PROCEEDING VIA CLASS ACTION IS SUPERIOR AND ADVISABLE

2 60. A class action is superior to all other available methods for the fair and efficient
3 adjudication of this lawsuit, because individual litigation of the claims of all members of the Class
4 is economically unfeasible and procedurally impracticable. While the aggregate damages sustained
5 by the Class are in the millions of dollars, the individual damages incurred by each member of the 6 Class resulting from Defendant’s wrongful conduct are too small to warrant the expense of 7 individual lawsuits. The likelihood of individual Class members prosecuting their own separate 8 claims is remote, and, even if every member of the Class could afford individual litigation, the 9 court system would be unduly burdened by individual litigation of such cases.

10 61. The prosecution of separate actions by members of the Class would create a risk of 11 establishing inconsistent rulings and/or incompatible standards of conduct for Defendant. For 12 example, one court might enjoin Defendant from performing the challenged acts, whereas another
13 may not. Additionally, individual actions may be dispositive of the interests of the Class, although 14 certain class members are not parties to such actions.

15 COUNT I
16 Violations of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)
(On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

17 62. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth
18 herein.

19 63. It is a violation of the TCPA to make “any call (other than a call made for 20 emergency purposes or made with the prior express consent of the called party) using any 21 automatic telephone dialing system ... to any telephone number assigned to a ... cellular telephone 22 service” 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii).

23 64. Defendant – or third parties directed by Defendant – used equipment having the 24 capacity to dial numbers without human intervention to make non-emergency telephone calls to 25 the cellular telephones of Plaintiff and the other members of the Class defined below.

26 65. These calls were made without regard to whether or not Defendant had first 27 obtained express permission from the called party to make such calls. In fact, Defendant did not
28

1 have prior express consent to call the cell phones of Plaintiff and the other members of the putative
2 Class when its calls were made.

3 66. Defendant has, therefore, violated § 227(b)(1)(A)(iii) of the TCPA by using an 4 automatic telephone dialing system to make non-emergency telephone calls to the cell phones of 5 Plaintiff and the other members of the putative Class without their prior express written consent.

6 67. Defendant knew that it did not have prior express consent to make these calls, and
7 knew or should have known that it was using equipment that at constituted an automatic telephone
8 dialing system. The violations were therefore willful or knowing.

9 68. As a result of Defendant's conduct and pursuant to § 227(b)(3) of the TCPA,
10 Plaintiff and the other members of the putative Class were harmed and are each entitled to a 11 minimum of $500.00 in damages for each violation. Plaintiff and the members of the Class are 12 also entitled to an injunction against future calls. Id.

13 COUNT II
14 Knowing and/or Willful Violation of the TCPA, 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)
15 (On Behalf of Plaintiff and the Class)

16 69. Plaintiff re-alleges and incorporates the foregoing allegations as if fully set forth
17 herein.

18 70. At all times relevant, Defendant knew or should have known that its conduct as 19 alleged herein violated the TCPA.

20 71. Defendant knew that it did not have prior express consent to make these calls, and 21 knew or should have known that its conduct was a violation of the TCPA.

22 72. Because Defendant knew or should have known that Plaintiff and Class Members
23 had not given prior express consent to receive its autodialed calls, the Court should treble the 24 amount of statutory damages available to Plaintiff and the other members of the putative Class
25 pursuant to § 227(b)(3) of the TCPA.

26 73. As a result of Defendant's violations, Plaintiff and the Class Members are entitled 27 to an award of $1,500.00 in statutory damages, for each and every violation, pursuant to 47 U.S.C.
28 § 227(b)(3)(B) and 47 U.S.C. § 227(b)(3)(C).

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff, individually and on behalf of the Class, prays for the following relief:

- a) An order certifying this case as a class action on behalf of the Class as defined above, and appointing Plaintiff as the representative of the Class and Plaintiff's counsel as Class Counsel;
- b) An award of actual and statutory damages for Plaintiff and each member of the Class;
- c) As a result of Defendant's negligent violations of 47 U.S.C. §§ 227, et seq., Plaintiff seeks for himself and each member of the Class $500.00 in statutory damages for each and every violation pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 277(b)(3)(B);
- d) As a result of Defendant's knowing and/or willful violations of 47 U.S.C. §§ 227, et seq., Plaintiff seeks for himself and each member of the Class treble damages, as provided by statute, up to $1,500.00 for each and every violation pursuant to 47 U.S.C. § 277(b)(3)(B) and § 277(b)(3)(C);
- e) An order declaring that Defendant's actions, as set out above, violate the TCPA;
- f) A declaratory judgment that Defendant's telephone calling equipment constitutes an automatic telephone dialing system under the TCPA;
- g) An injunction requiring Defendant to cease all unsolicited text messaging activity, and to otherwise protect the interests of the Class;
- h) An injunction prohibiting Defendant from using, or contracting the use of, an automatic telephone dialing system without obtaining, recipient's consent to receive calls made with such equipment;
- i) An award of reasonable attorneys' fees and costs; and
- j) Such further and other relief as the Court deems necessary.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff hereby demand a trial by jury.
